

PROCLAMATION

PROCLAIMING EAGLE MOUNTAIN CITY AS A JUSTSERVE CITY

WHEREAS, Eagle Mountain City, Utah, recognizes that volunteers are an essential part of a strong, connected, and thriving community; and

WHEREAS, meaningful volunteer service provides opportunities for residents to build relationships, develop a greater sense of belonging, meet community needs, and make a positive difference in the lives of others; and

WHEREAS, JustServe is a service that connects individuals and organizations with meaningful volunteer opportunities in their local communities, helping people find ways to serve according to their interests, abilities, and availability; and

WHEREAS, Eagle Mountain City desires to encourage and strengthen volunteerism throughout the community and to help residents discover opportunities to serve their neighbors and improve the quality of life in Eagle Mountain; and

WHEREAS, the City recognizes that service is most powerful when residents, organizations, businesses, and community partners work together toward the common good; and

WHEREAS, designating Eagle Mountain City as a JustServe City demonstrates the City's commitment to promoting volunteerism, connecting residents with opportunities to serve, and supporting organizations that seek to make a positive difference in our community;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT PROCLAIMED, that Mayor Jared Gray, and the Eagle Mountain City Council do hereby designate Eagle Mountain City as a JustServe City and encourage residents, organizations, businesses, and community partners to participate in meaningful service opportunities throughout our community.

Dated this 15th day of September, 2026.

Jared Gray, Mayor

Melissa Clark, City Councilmember

Zachory Huish, City Councilmember

Craig Whiting, City Councilmember

Rich Wood, City Councilmember

Brett Wright, City Councilmember

